

SEMINARIO

The Belt and Road Initiative in Latin America

9:00-9:30

Inscripción y palabras de bienvenida

Johannes REHNER, Director del Centro de Estudios Asiáticos, PUC)

■ Panel 1

9:30-11:00

Diego LEIVA (Griffith University)

Belt and Road Initiative and railways in Latin America: a laborious learning process.

Nicole JENNE (ICP UC)

The value of security cooperation in China-South American relations.

Andrés BÓRQUEZ (IEI - U. de Chile)

The role of Non-Traditional Economic Initiatives in Sino-Chilean relations: Going forward to new roads of cooperation in the Asia-Pacific region.

Felipe MUÑOZ NAVIA (IEI - U. de Chile)

China's trade policy towards Latin America: An analysis of the Free Trade Agreements.

Comentarista: Juan Enrique SERRANO MORENO (UFRO)

11:00-11:30: Pausa café.

■ Panel 2

11:30-13:00

Francisco URDINEZ (ICP UC)

Why did Latin American countries join the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank?

Tatiana GELVEZ (University of Essex) - Juan Carlos GACHUZ (Universidad de las Américas):

Current trends in Chinese aid to Latin America and potential opportunities with the Belt and Road Initiative.

Juliana GONZÁLEZ JÁUREGUI (FLACSO Argentina)
Latin America in the Belt and Road Initiative: Towards a Reflection of the 3-Level Framework for Development.

Comentarista: Dorotea LÓPEZ GIRAL (IEI - U. de Chile)

13:00-13:30

Conclusiones y cierre:

Juan Enrique SERRANO MORENO (UFRO)

Martes 30 de julio 2019

9:00-14:00

Sala de Usos Múltiples 2º piso,
Facultad de Geografía, Historia y Ciencia Política
Campus San Joaquín